

Alcohol & Substance Use Resources

Al-Anon, Alateen	417-823-7125	www.missouri-al-anon.org	The Al-Anon Family Groups are a fellowship of relatives and friends of alcoholics who share their experience, strength, and hope in order to solve their common problems. We believe alcoholism is a family illness and that changed attitudes can aid recovery. Al-Anon is not allied with any sect, denomination, political entity, organization, or institution; does not engage in any controversy; neither endorses nor opposes any cause. There are no dues for membership. Al-Anon is self-supporting through its own voluntary contributions. Al-Anon has but one purpose: to help families of alcoholics. We do this by practicing the Twelve Steps, by welcoming and giving comfort to families of alcoholics, and by giving understanding and encouragement to the alcoholic.
Alcoholics Anonymous	417-823-7125	www.aaswmo.org	Alcoholics Anonymous is a fellowship of men and women who share their experience, strength and hope with each other that they may solve their common problem and help others to recover from alcoholism. The only requirement for membership is a desire to stop drinking. There are no dues or fees for A.A. membership; we are self-supporting through our own contributions. A.A. is not allied with any sect, denomination, politics, organization or institution; does not wish to engage in any controversy, neither endorses nor opposes any causes. Our primary purpose is to stay sober and help other alcoholics to achieve sobriety.

Higher Ground Recovery Center	417-869-0700	www.higherground417.org	At Higher Ground we believe substance use disorder is a mental, physical, and spiritual condition that affects all major areas of life. We believe substance use disorders can best be treated by applying the truth of Scripture to established mindsets and strongholds in the life of the substance user through individual counseling, spiritual life-skills education, group therapy, Bible study, and Christ-centered self-help groups by the power of the Holy Spirit.
Narcotics Anonymous	855-866-7392	www.swmoana.org	N.A. is a nonprofit Fellowship or society of men and women for whom drugs had become a major problem. We are recovering addicts who meet regularly to help each other stay clean. This is a program of complete abstinence from all drugs. There is only one requirement for membership, the desire to stop using. We suggest that you keep an open mind and give yourself a break our program is a set of principles written so simply that we can follow them in our daily lives. The most important thing about them is that they work.
